CONDITIONS OF SALE.

1.—The highest bidder to be the Buyer, and the biddings to be at the discretion of the Auctioneer, who reserves the right of refusing any bidding, and no bidding once made is to be retracted. In the case of lots upon which there is a reserve, the Auctioneer shall have the right to bid on behalf of the Sellers.

2.—The Purchaser is to give in at the fall of the hammer his or her name and address, and (if required) pay to the Auctioneer the amount of the Purchase Money, or a deposit as he (the Auctioneer) shall require, otherwise the lot will be put up again and re-sold, any payment for a single lot being considered as a general deposit on the whole of the lots of one Purchaser. Any unpaid Purchase Money is to be paid to the Auctioneer or his Clerk, in cash, free from any deduction whatever, after each day's sale, and before any of the lots are removed.

3.—The declaration of the name of the Purchaser shall be deemed a full and sufficient acceptance of each lot, and shall bar all further questions of delivery, and the lots will be absolutely and entirely at Buyer's risk from the fall of the hammer.

4.—The several lots are to be taken without any warranty whatever, and with all defects, faults, imperfections, and errors of every description, and whether genuine and authentic or not, and are to be removed by the several Purchasers from off the premises, at their own expense, immediately after each day's sale (Tuesday excepted), they being held responsible (either by themselves or others employed by them) for all damage done in taking down or removing their respective lots, any remaining lots being liable to be detained until such damage is repaired. The quantities described in the Catalogue are believed to be correct, and must be taken as such, without any allowance in case of deficiency. Notwithstanding what is stated in this Condition, the Purchasers must expedite or delay the removal of any particular lot on being requested by the Auctioneer or his Clerk so to do.

5.—Disputes arising in connection with this Sale, either between bidders or otherwise, are to be settled by the Auctioneer, whose decision shall be final and binding on all persons concerned.

6.—The Auctioneer reserves the right of altering, varying, or withdrawing any of the lots from the Sale, and he is not to be held responsible (either by the Vendors or Purchaser) for Damage, Accident of any kind, Loss, or Misdescription, or for any Deficiency that may arise on Re-sale of Uncleared Lots. No Lots will be transferred.

7.—If a purchaser shall neglect or fail to comply with any of these Conditions, any Money deposited shall be absolutely forfeited, and the Auctioneer shall be at liberty to re-sell the Lots remaining, either by Public or Private Sale, without giving any previous notice to the defaulting Purchaser, and the deficiency (if any) arising on such second Sale, together with all expenses and charges for selling, removal, rent, or otherwise, attending the same, shall be made good by the defaulter or defaulters at this present Sale, and be recoverable as and for liquidated damages, but any excess in price arising thereby shall belong to the Vendors. This condition is, however, without prejudice to the right of the Auctioneer or Vendors to enforce the contract made at this Sale if they (or either of them) think fit, and the entry of the Auctioneer in the sale account of the Buyer's name and amount of Purchase Money shall be deemed full and sufficient evidence of such contract, and binding alike on Vendors and Purchaser.

8.—As it is imperative that all lots be removed from off the premises in accordance with condition 4, the last condition is to be construed to mean that it gives the Auctioneer or Vendors the right to re-sell in case of non-removal, notwithstanding that the lot or lots remaining on the premises have been paid for by the purchasers.
